Terri Thompson is an accomplished quilter and a member of the Busy Hands Quilt Guild in Cambridge that just held a quilt show at the end of September. Originally from Cambridge, she now lives in Paris Ontario with her husband and their dog. Her words are below:

I have been quilting on and off for over 30 years. I love working with colour and I try not to pigeon-hole myself into one style of quilting. I love taking projects from start to finish including hand-quilting, quilting with my walking foot or free-motion quilting on my domestic machine. I'm looking forward to sharing my FMQ journey, tips and tricks with you in November's workshop. Some of my quilts are pictured here.

A supply list will be sent out to people who are registered by the end of October.
